

DEPARTMENT HH – 4-H & OPEN YOUTH HORSES
Superintendent Becky Sprague 509-220-1709
Co-Superintendent Lola Rickey 509-570-2535

Horse entries should be mailed by July 15. All 4-H animal entry forms must be signed by the member's leader or advisor. Horse entries will not be accepted after the July 15 deadline. Stall assignments will be made on a 1st come; 1st serve basis.

RULES FOR ALL HORSE EXHIBITORS:

1. Exhibitors in Department HH are youth ENROLLED PRIOR IN A RECOGNIZED 4-H PROGRAM OR OPEN YOUTH WHO HAVE NOT REACHED THEIR 19th BIRTHDAY BY JANUARY 1 OF THE CURRENT YEAR. Both 4-H and Open Youth are eligible for all classes in Dept. HH. NO Primary members are allowed in 4-H or Open horse projects. Fair wristbands are required to enter Fitting & Showing.
2. Exhibitors must have their horse entry under their control and care at least 90 days prior to the fair in order to exhibit. Re: Pacific Northwest Extension Publication PNW574.
3. Annual five-way vaccinations are REQUIRED.
4. All Exhibitors and each horse entered in the fair must show in halter division and Fitting and Showing in order to be in the performance divisions and Western Games. Exhibitor number to be worn in ALL classes entered. 4-H & Open Youth may show together but will be judged different as 4-H can qualify for state fair.
5. Three entries allowed unless there is a shortage of stalls. Exhibitors will be notified after entry deadline if this occurs. Box stall priority will be given to mares, foals, and yearlings. All other horses MUST tie.
6. Horses are to arrive between 5:00pm and 6:30pm on Tuesday and be vet inspected before entering barns or outside pens. Horses are to have only halter on when being inspected. Exhibitor must be present for veterinarian inspection. NO EXCEPTIONS. Horses that leave the grounds after vet inspection CANNOT re-enter the barns or barn area for the remainder of the fair.
7. Any horse requiring any medication should be identified at Vet check and present a valid prescription or a written explanation signed by a licensed Vet. The use of Phenylbutazone ("bute") in older horses is acceptable when the drug does not alter the horse performance and is used with a Vet's prescription.
8. Non-registered & registered equine may be shown, but registered horses must show papers. No horses on the grounds unless entered in the fair. Barn rules will be posted and MUST be adhered to.
9. No mares ready to foal. Foals must be 1 month old and be vaccinated. Mares having foaled must have babies weaned for over 1 month.
10. Exhibitors are required to attend horse superintendent meeting on Tuesday, 7pm.
11. All horse stalls including 4-H and Open Youth must have educational posters and be decorated (including tack stalls, if any). All exhibitors must have their stalls cleaned by 8:30am every day of the fair. Barn duty from 9 am to 9 pm Thursday through 4 pm Sunday of the fair.
12. ALL exhibitors MUST always have at least one person on barn duty. Exhibitors must be appropriately dressed and wearing boots. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to help keep the area around the barns cleaned up.
13. Do not ride horses in and out of barns; lead them to and from the arena. Red ribbons must be worn in tails of all known kicking horses.
14. In Fitting and Showing exhibitors are required to wear white long-sleeved shirts, green tie (if 4-H), black or dark blue jeans and western hats or helmet. A chain may be used over the horse's nose in the Fitting and Showing divisions.
15. All exhibitors must always wear ASTM-SEI approved helmets when mounted (including exercising times). NO exceptions. No halters when riding. Exercise area and times will be posted.
16. No racing horses on the fairgrounds. Safe and correct riding always. If two warnings are given exhibitor will be required to leave the fair.
17. After using the wash stalls make sure you clean the area.
18. Grand champions and trophy winners must ride or lead horse in the Parade of Champions Sunday unless excused by the Superintendent. Winners must wear clothing appropriate to their winning division.
19. Horse stalls must be cleaned and checked off by Superintendent before removing horses on Sunday.
20. Parents and Leaders are NOT ALLOWED to water, brush, or saddle any youth horse entered in the fair, regardless if they are stalled or not. This rule applies to any animal on the fairgrounds.
21. In case of rules dispute, Pacific Northwest Extension Publication PNW574, 4-H Horse Contest Guide, will be used as the official guide. See Fair Rules for Conflict Resolution Policy.
22. Classes maybe combined, if necessary, at superintendent and or judge's request.
23. No unattended minors will be allowed on the fairgrounds after the 9:00pm closing time.
